

MUSEUM

Temporarily closed for Christmas 2022

Re-opens: Saturday 7th January 2023

Normal hours: 1000-1200

Saturday & Wednesday mornings

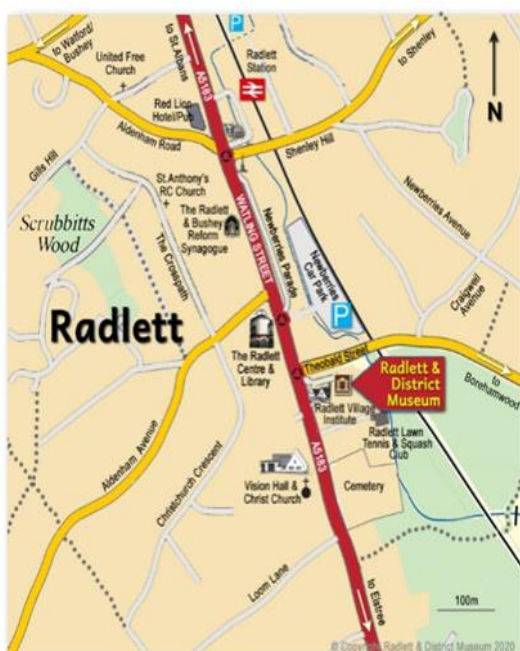

FREE ADMISSION —FREE PARKING

*Rear of: Radlett Village Institute, 413A Watling Street, Radlett WD7 7JG
enquiries to: info@radlettmuseum.com*

The Museum offers displays of local photos, documents, maps, artefacts, etc., plus regular themed exhibitions

The Museum is also local history resource, and is fortunate to have the extensive documentary and computer database developed by the late Philip Eastburn

The Museum also plans to give access to recordings and transcripts of interviews with long-time local residents

ADDRESS: 413A Watling Street, Radlett, WD7 7JG behind the Radlett Village Institute, (at the junction of Theobald Street / Watling Street)

PARKING: available on site, or nearby in Newberries shoppers' car park [1st hour - free]

ACCESS: fully wheelchair accessible

BUSES: 601 Borehamwood ↔ Welwyn Garden City
602 Hatfield ↔ Watford
Nearest stop: Watling Street, opp. Tesco

RAIL: Radlett is served by Thameslink services:
London St.Pancras International to Bedford

Radlett Archives Group is a working name of Radlett & District Museum
a charitable incorporated organisation registered with the Charity Commission- number 1175292

SUPPORTED BY:

