

REMEMBER THE MUSEUM IN YOUR WILL

The Radlett & District Museum is a registered charity and consequently relies on the generosity of people who support it by volunteering and donating money or through the provision of legacies contained in their wills.

Perhaps you have already considered making such a monetary donation to the Museum in your will but have not yet included the appropriate wording.

The making or updating of your will need not be complicated or expensive and there are taxation benefits for your estate in giving a legacy to a charitable organisation.

When discussing your wishes with a solicitor, you should advise him/her that: the Charity name is The Radlett & District Museum, the relevant address is:-

The Treasurer,
c/o Radlett & District Museum,
413A Watling Street,
Radlett,
Hertfordshire
WD7 7JG

our charity number is 1175292.

Any size of donation from your estate would be most welcome and can, if you wish, be assigned towards a particular purpose or project such as the purchase of new exhibits, building maintenance, equipment, etc.

We appreciate that any donation you may wish to make is your own personal decision and there is no need to inform us beforehand, unless you wish to do so. Naturally, we would treat any such information in the strictest confidence.

Further details may be obtained from our Treasurer, email:-
